EXPERIENCE

Backend Developer

dZenCode March 2023 - June 2023 · 4 mos
Skills: Typescript · Node · Python · Django

Participated in the creation of a groundbreaking gRPC microservice, ingeniously leveraging the capabilities of the OpenAI API, all while collaborating seamlessly with a diverse and talented team. Additionally, played a pivotal role in developing an innovative automated scraping tool, orchestrating Outlook to send personalized emails to recipients from a carefully curated list, showcasing not only my technical skills but also my ability to work effectively within a team environment.

Full-stack Developer

Freelance June 2021 - March 2023 · 1 yr 10 mos
Skills: React · Typescript · Next · Tailwind · Node · Python · Django

Throughout my career, I've gained valuable experience working on a diverse range of small to medium-sized projects. I've created single-page applications with varying degrees of backend support, honing my proficiency in leveraging these technologies to consistently produce top-notch results. Additionally, I've contributed to client projects by effectively retrieving public data from a wide range of web resources, devising a tool for structured table data extraction from PDF documents, and proficiently developing SOAP clients with Suds.
